DO NOT mail check and/or cash, deliver in person is ok.

2. I/we understand that if students drop the class in anytime of the camp period, the remaining unfinished classes are non-refundable and non-transferable.

3. I/we understand for intellectual property reason, no video or audio recording allowed during the percussion camp class instruction, end-of-camp concert is fine.

4. I/we understand Cha Cha Summer Camp will provide complimentary lunch for all the students; however, students with food allergies need to bring their own lunch, water or snack to the camp and avoid using any food provided by the summer camp.

5. I/we understand students need to notify the camp if students have any food allergies or special medical conditions when registering with the camp, and bring the necessary food or medical devices during the entire summer camp. Please note: camp WILL NOT take any responsibilities for any medical situations that happen during the entire camp for the students.

6. I/we understand that parents should sign in and sign out the students everyday during the camp. If student is not picked up by parents or guardians, parents should arrange the driver and notify the camp everyday. Parents should pick up the students on time at 4 pm from Monday to Thursday, late pick-up will result in penalties. If students need extended care, please notify the camp to discuss arrangements.

7. I/we understand that students agree to be responsible for any damage or loss that may occur while playing the instruments, including keyboards, mallet, and drums replacement needs and shall pay the cost of repair or replacement upon request of the instructor. Normal "wear and tear" will be covered by Cha Cha Percussion.

8. I/we understand that Cha Cha Percussion might use photographs/videos of students or parents publicly to promote percussion on websites, flyers and/or social media.

9. I/we understand that safety is the top consideration of the camp, students need to cooperate and obey the guidance from the camp director, teachers, instructors, and helpers during the entire camp.

10. I/we understand that Cha Cha Percussion reserves the right to terminate this and/or any other agreements if students do not cooperate with the camp with no further advance notice if Cha Cha Percussion feels the need to.
